14	I was so surprised that my razor slipped and I cut myself./I turned. There stood Count Dracula.
16	One of the women moved towards me./Her teeth were sharp and white.
19	There, on a heap of earth, lay Count Dracula./His eyes were open, but he did not move.
23	One night, Mina found Lucy leaning out of the open window./A huge, black bird was sitting beside Lucy (her).
24	Suddenly Jonathan gave a terrible cry./'My God, look!' he said. 'It is the Count!'
27	Van Helsing examined her with great care.
32	'There,' he said as lifted the lid.
34	Van Helsing ran in front of Arthur and held up a large cross./When Lucy saw the cross, she stopped smiling.
35	Then they closed the coffin lid and hammered it down.
39	Van Helsing stood by the open door at the top of the steps./Suddenly Van Helsing gave a cry.
41	One of his hands held the back of Mina's neck./Dracula was holding Mina's face to a long cut on his chest.
52	Jonathan's long, sharp stake was above Dracula's heart.

- 4 Student's own answer.
- 5 (a) and (b) Student's own answer.
- 6 (a) and (b) Student's own answer. Student could use information from pages 4 and 5, and details from the story itself.
- 7 Student's own answer. Student could write 3 days of the diary for May 1875 when Jonathan Harker is first at Castle Dracula or for August when Dracula arrives in England and attacks Lucy or later when he attacks Mina, then sets out to return to Transylvania or at the end of the book in October when he is pursued by Van Helsing, Jonathan, Mina and Arthur.
